

Mine Safety and Health Conference Award Application

The Mine Safety and Health Conference is pleased to announce that the conference will be accepting applications for the Mine Safety and Health 2021 Mine and Plant Safety Awards. Safety is a team effort and all operations are encouraged to apply or to nominate person's they feel are eligible for the award.

1. Manager of the Year Award - This award is open to Plant/Mine Manager's who have displayed outstanding safety practices in their operations.
2. Safety Horizon Award - This award is open to professionals with 10 years or less in the safety field who are outstanding safety professionals among their peers.
3. The Distinguished Safety Professional – This award is open to those who have given 10 years or more in the safety field and who have contributed to creating, enhancing and improving the safety culture overall.
4. The Lifesaver Award – This award is for a person or group of persons who performed a life saving action of person or persons in distress or whose actions were of honorable merit.

The judging panel will consider the following when reviewing applications:

- Commitment and dedication to the safety culture
- Communicating Safety and encouraging personnel
- Impact of Safety beyond the work environment
- Creativity in Safety
- Best Management Practices / Safety Leadership

3 EASY Steps – Submittal's shall Include the following:

1. Application Cover Letter – Must be signed and submitted by a Company Principal (Please provide)
2. Safety Application (Included)
3. Complete Essay (Please provide)

Selected judges from the Mine Safety and Health Conference will review awards applications, and the company names will remain anonymous until a selection has been decided. The award panel will ensure that no judge reviews a nomination from his or her own company during the selection process. Winners will be notified by the Awards Committee no later than October 1, 2021.

The awards will be presented at the 17th Annual Mine Safety and Health Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada at the South Point Hotel, Casino, and Spa on October 26-27, 2021.

Email completed award application to: mrock@calportland.com Please submit completed applications by September 1, 2021 Company submitter will be notified by October 1, 2021